BEAU CONSTANTIA

Beau Constantia is a boutique wine farm perched atop Constantia Nek in the Cape Peninsula, overlooking False Bay and framed by mountain slopes.

After devastating fires in 2000 cleared the land, Pierre and Cecily Du Preez acquired the property in 2002 and planted the first vineyards in 2003. The site is characterised by steep slopes, elevation (~350 m above sea level), and cooling influences from the Atlantic breeze.

GENEVIEVE

Genevieve MCC is a boutique sparkling wine producer located in the Bot River region, specialising exclusively in Méthode Cap Classique (South Africa's traditional method for sparkling wines).

Founded by Melissa Genevieve Nelsen, the estate was born from her personal passion for crafting world-class sparkling wines. She selected a pocket of Chardonnay in the Van der Stel Pass as the foundation for her vision, and produced her first vintage in 2008, released in 2010.

KEERMONT

Nestled in a naturally formed amphitheatre between the Helderberg and Stellenbosch mountain ranges, Keermont is a boutique, family-owned estate with a strong sense of place.

Purchased by the Wraith family in 2003, the estate has expanded under the guidance of winemaker Alex Starey, who joined early in the redevelopment process. Keermont's vineyards rise between 250 and 400 metres above sea level, sitting on deep red loam soils with quartzitic sandstone, and are interspersed with indigenous fynbos and renosterveld.

LUDDITE WINES

Nestled in the Bot River region of the Western Cape, Luddite Wines is helmed by Niels & Penny Verburg, who founded the estate with a vision of letting place and nature express themselves.

Their vineyards are organically farmed and dry-cultivated, and their approach to winemaking is deliberately minimalist using machinery only when absolutely necessary, so that the terroir remains undisturbed.

Luddite has earned acclaim for its expressive Chenin Blanc and Shiraz, as well as its bold, elegant blends.

MIGLIARINA

Established in 2002 by Carsten Migliarina, this boutique brand sources fruit from select vineyards across the Western Cape rather than owning its own land.

Migliarina is defined by a philosophy of “doing less, better”, hand-picked grapes, rigorous sorting, gentle handling, long skin contact when needed, and minimal intervention in the cellar.

Its varietal repertoire includes Chardonnay, Chenin Blanc, Grenache, Shiraz and experimental blends, each reflecting a commitment to purity, clarity and finesse.

WEINGUT BERNHARD OTT

Founded in 1889, Weingut Bernhard Ott is a family-run estate rooted in the Wagram region, dedicated to the pursuit of purity and balance. Over four generations, the Ott family has cultivated a deep understanding of their soils, today tending 50 hectares of vineyards with the support of a 25-member team.

Since 2006, the estate has embraced biodynamic viticulture, guided by the principles of vitality, diversity and respect for nature. The philosophy is simple yet profound, balance is the key to success. Every process, from organic composting to hand-harvesting, whole-cluster pressing, spontaneous fermentation.

CHAMPAGNE ANDRE HEUCQ

Located in the small village of Cuisles, within the Vallée de la Marne, Champagne André Heucq is a family-run estate now in its fourth generation. The vineyards span approximately 5.70 hectares across 34 plots, of which roughly 80 % are planted to Meunier, the prime focus of the house.

The unique terroir of Cuisles, incorporating a layer of green illite clay, provides distinctive minerality and aging potential to the wines. Since 2018, the estate has been certified organic, and practices biodynamic viticulture, with low-intervention winemaking and long lees ageing to preserve texture and terroir expression.

CHAMPAGNE BENOIT DEHU

Located in Fossoy in the Vallée de la Marne, Champagne Benoît Déhu is a family estate whose viticultural heritage spans eight generations. Under Benoît Déhu's direction, the domaine has become known for its pioneering approach to single-parcel, single-varietal Champagnes, notably from the parcel La Rue des Noyers, planted entirely to Meunier.

Working biodynamically, the estate cultivates its vineyards with exceptional care, all grapes are hand-harvested, fermented with indigenous yeasts, and aged in oak casks to preserve texture and terroir precision. Each cuvée reflects a deep understanding of geology and soil life, guided by the principle that "the wine must express the place."

CHAMPAGNE ERIC TAILLET

Situated in the Vallée de la Marne, Champagne Éric Taillet is a family-run estate with roots dating back to 1900 and first marketed in 1961. Under the leadership of Eric Taillet (4th generation), the domaine works primarily with Meunier, the signature variety, planted on living clay and limestone soils, flint and marl subsoils.

The vineyard-management philosophy centres on living soils (no herbicides or fertilisers), deep root systems and biodiversity (including agro-forestry initiatives such as planting 600 common beech trees around the “Sur le Grand Marais” parcel).
